Lawyer Qiu Yuxia is a senior co-partner at Beijing Deheheng Law Firm and head of its Toronto office. She possesses extensive experience in cross-border investment, dispute resolution, inheritance, family law, and tax law. Qiu is a licensed financial advisor in California, USA, and British Columbia and Ontario, Canada.

Qiu graduated from Qingdao University in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in international economic law and from Dalian Maritime University in 2021 with a master's degree in international law. She received the British Lord Chancellor's Scholarship from 2002 to 2003 and was a visiting scholar at the University of London. Between 2014-2017, she was a researcher in China-Canada Comparative Law at China University of Political Science and Law.

Throughout her career, Attorney Qiu has focused on cross-border investment and dispute resolution. Since taking charge of DHH Law Firm's Canadian business in 2014, she has gained solid practical experience in legal practices such as China-Canada cross-border investment, cross-border inheritance and marriage, family office business, recognition and enforcement of foreign judgments and arbitration awards, and tax law.

After obtaining financial advisor licenses in the United States and Canada, Qiu has provided wealth management and inheritance planning services for many private entrepreneurs and high-net-worth families. Her expertise includes wealth inheritance, asset management and estate planning, Canadian tax planning, tax appeals, and responses. Clients deeply trust and praise her comprehensive family financial and tax services.
